

History of City & Site Planning
HUM2212 - Level (2)
Final Exam - Second Term - (2018-2019)
ILOs (a.2, a.5, a.6, b.2, and b.8)

Question (1): Answer the following (10 g)

1- Comparing between the main components of the city structure and pattern of planning in Ancient Egyptian Civilization, and Ancient Roman Civilization, explaining your answer by applying on one example for each of them (using sketches) ?

Question (2): Answer the following (20 g)

- 1- What's the main characteristic of Baroque Planning Pattern, give an example for one of the Renaissance city models (using sketch) ?
- 2- Compare between positive and negative effects in city planning and components during The Industrial Revolution ?

Question (3) Complete the sentences: (15 g)

- 1- The vacuum relay, central axis, and symmetry is one of the main principles that applied in building temples in Civilization.
- 2- The social classes is contain degrees in Mesopotamia Civilization, and changing into only 3 degrees in Ear.
- 3- The planning pattern appeared in flat location, but the organic planning pattern appeared in location.
- 4- The main defense elements of urban components in all ancient cities, which appeared for protection are,
- 5- The main principle for choosing location of cities in first ancient civilization was and changing to cross cutting roads inAge.

Question (4): Put (R) to the wright answer and (O) to the wrong answer, and correct the wrong one. (15 g)

- 1- The Perspective Design is one of the main principles of town planning, which appeared in Medieval cities.
- 2- The Acropolis appeared in ancient Roman cities at their centre on rocky mound or hill where they built their important temples.
- 3- The City State is one of city functions that appeared in Ancient Egyptian Civilization.
- 4- The City Size increased in Renaissance Age to 200,000 inhabitants in Capital Cities.
- 5- El Qasaba is one of the major axis road in urban planning in West Medieval Cities.

Question (5): Answer the following (10 g)

1- What's the meaning of these words, and in what civilization has been appeared? (Agora - El- Wekala - Ziggurat - Church Square - Cardus)

Thank you, and Good Luck
Dr. Heba Soliman