

Pediatric Nursing Department

Department Vision

The Pediatric Nursing Department at Kafrelsheikh University aspires to achieve leadership and excellence in preparing qualified and innovative professionals in the field of pediatric nursing, scientific research, and community service, who are competent in providing safe and accurate nursing care for children at different stages of development and their families.

Staff Members

1. Dr. Eman Wardany Abdel-Aal
2. Dr. Manal Yahia Ibrahim
3. Dr. Sahar Wasfy Mahmoud
4. Dr. Ghada Mohamed Basiouny
5. Assistant Lecturer. Sahar Fawzy
6. Assistant Lecturer. Amal El-Sayed
7. Demonstrator. Abeer Sobhy
8. Demonstrator. Shaimaa Mahmoud
9. Demonstrator. Asmaa Khaled
10. Demonstrator. Donia Fathy

Key Achievements, Services, and Activities of the Department

Holding the Department Scientific Day annually

Conducting training courses and workshops that serve the community for staff working at the general hospital and the university hospital.

Participation in medical convoys and the provision of healthcare services as part of the Presidential Initiative “Hayah Karima (Decent Life)”.

Providing health education to children's families regarding healthcare and supplying useful information about healthy lifestyles for children.

Teaching students how to provide comprehensive nursing care to sick children and assisting in performing appropriate diagnostic and therapeutic procedures.

Pediatric Nursing Department

Participation in World Diabetes Day

Workshop Title: "Raising Awareness Among Mothers about Breastfeeding, Weaning, and Childhood Vaccinations"

Location: Outpatient Clinics, Kafr El Sheikh General Hospital

Date: Thursday, February 27, 2025

Trainers:

- Assistant Lecturer / Sahar Fawzy – Pediatric Nursing Department, Faculty of Nursing, Kafr El Sheikh University
- Demonstrator / Asmaa Khaled – Pediatric Nursing Department, Faculty of Nursing, Kafr El Sheikh University

Target Audience: Mothers of children under the age of 2 years attending outpatient clinics

Objective:

- To provide mothers with information on:
- The importance of breastfeeding for both the mother and the child and the basic principles of weaning.
- The significance of adhering to the prescribed vaccination schedule.
- Raising awareness about the importance of personal hygiene for the child and following a proper and balanced diet.

Pediatric Nursing Department

Holding a Workshop on "Modern Practices in Nursing Care for Children with Diabetes on World Diabetes Day"

Location: Pediatric Inpatient Department, Kafr El Sheikh General Hospital

Date: Thursday, November 14, 2024

Trainers:

Assistant Lecturer / Amal El-Sayed Ibrahim – Pediatric Nursing Department,
Faculty of Nursing, Kafr El Sheikh University

Demonstrator / Donia Fathy El-Sayed – Pediatric Nursing Department, Faculty of Nursing, Kafr El Sheikh University

Target Audience: Children with diabetes and their caregivers

Objectives:

- To provide mothers and children with information about diabetes, including:
- Recognizing the indicators and symptoms of type 1 diabetes in children
- Understanding the causes of type 1 diabetes
- Identifying the complications of type 1 diabetes in children
- Cooperating with the child to maintain optimal blood sugar control as much as possible
- Educating the child on the importance of following a healthy diet and participating in regular physical activities

Pediatric Nursing Department

Participating in an awareness and educational visit to Al-Noor School for the Blind.

