Attempt three only of the following paragraphs into the opposite language:

1) وُلد الفنان "إسماعيل ياسين" في عام 1912 بمدينة السويس. عاش طفولةً بائسةً وحياةً غير مستقرة لم يستكمل خلالها تعليمه الابتدائي وخاصة بعد وفاة والدته .. تدرّجياً تمت موهبته كفنان .. ومثّاراً "بمحمد عبد الوهاب" أعد "إسماعيل ياسين" نفسه ليصبح مطرباً فغنى في الأفراح والمعاهي قبل أن يتوجه إلى القاهرة وينضم لفرقة "بديعة مصابني". التفتت إليه السينما حين قدمه "فؤاد الجرايري" عام 1939 في فيلم خلف الحجاب ثم انضم إلى فرقة "على الكسار" المسرحية وتألّق في إلقاء المونولوجات.

2) Muhammad Ali is a renowned reformer and a man who was ahead of his time in his thinking on political, economic and social matters. Indeed, he was ahead of his time even in his relationship with his children, especially his daughters, and with women in general. Unlike many men of his era, Muhammad Ali had only one wife, Amina, who had beetling brows and beautiful eyes. He treated her with fondness and respect and never married another woman. ... Benazir Bhutto made a dramatic return to Pakistan yesterday, ending eight years of exile to reclaim a share of power with the country's U.S.-backed military leader.

3) It is a strange title! We feel everything is strange because we judge it through our strange characters. Everything seems strange at first but once we look into it we soon realize it is a matter of course. When you find a young man or one of your colleagues passing away, you can do nothing but exclaim to what you see: "How come? He's still young! He's sitting with me this day last week or this hour yesterday!" We are professors of exclamations as we are good at uttering inflated words. How superficial we are! In our thinking, we are always confined to this world, our present life. We never take the life to come into our consideration. We never imagined, just imagined, that we will go the way of all flesh one day....

4) Taken as a unique encyclopedic self-educated figure, 'Abbas M. el-'Aqqad, one of the giants of the 20th century and a renowned figure in the illumination of human thought, used to read in different fields of knowledge, and he wrote in various spheres, distinguishing himself as a writer, thinker, poet, historian and journalist. The Egyptian writer enriched the Arab Library with 102 books on different topics including history, philosophy, poetry, literature, political, geniuses, biographies and memoirs (autobiographies), besides translating books from English into Arabic. In 1896, he started his first educational lessons in the kuttab (or the pre-elementary educational and which prevailed in Egypt and the orient late 19th and early 20th centuries, teaching children the Holy Qur'an and Arabic language. They are gradually disappearing leaving place for civil governmental and private schools not excluding—nevertheless religious teachings which occupy a prominent place therein).
