2- Attempt a Critical Analysis of the Poem Below:[16 marks]

THREE years she grew in sun and shower;
Then Nature said, 'A lovelier flower
On earth was never sown;
This child I to myself will take;
She shall be mine, and I will make
A lady of my own.
'Myself will to my darling be
Both law and impulse; and with me
The girl, in rock and plain,
In earth and heaven, in glade and bower,
Shall feel an overseeing power
To kindle or restrain.
'She shall be sportive as the fawn
That wild with glee across the lawn
Or up the mountain springs;
And hers shall be the breathing balm,
And hers the silence and the calm
Of mute insensate things.
'The floating clouds their state shall lend
To her; for her the willow bend;
Nor shall she fail to see
Even in the motions of the storm
Grace that shall mould the maiden's form
By silent sympathy.
'The stars of midnight shall be dear
To her; and she shall lean her ear
In many a secret place
Where rivulets dance their wayward round,
And beauty born of murmuring sound
Shall pass into her face.

3- Give a full evaluation of the Poem Below: [16 marks]

Night came, but without darkness or repose,
A dismal picture of the gen'ral doom:
Where souls distracted when the Trumpet blows,
And half unready with their bodies come.

Those who have homes, when home they do repair,
To a last lodging call their wand'ring friends.
Their short uneasie sleeps are broke with care,
To look how near their own destruction ends.

Those who have none sit round where once it was,
And with full eyes each wanted room require:
Haunting the yet warm ashes of the place,
As murder'd men walk where they did expire.

Some stir up coals and watch he vestal fire,
Others in vain from sight of ruine run
And, while through burning Lab'rinth they retire,
With loathing eyes repeat what they would sun.

The most in fields, like herded beasts lie down
To dews obnoxious on the grassie floor
And while their Babes in sleep their sorrows drown,
Sad parents watch the remnants of their sore.

While by the motion of the flames they guess
What streets are burning now, & what are near.
An infant, waking, to the paps would press,
And meets, instead of milk, a falling tear.
