

Model for OSPE Exam II

1- What is the color abnormality seen in the hand?

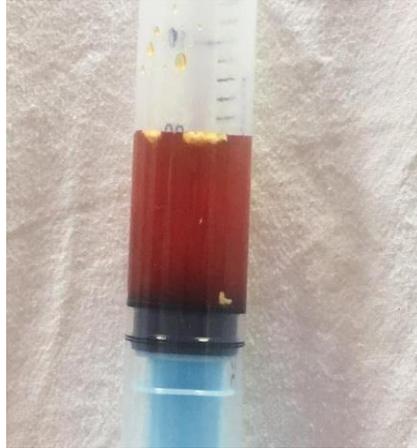

2- What is the tongue abnormality?

3- In a patient with pallor this nail abnormality was detected, what is it? Describe it?

4- Cirrhotic patient with ascites presented to the ER, diagnostic aspirate of ascetic fluid showed this color, give 3 possible causes.

5- This cirrhotic patient with ascites presented to the ER by abdominal pain and on examination stepladder, dilated loops were seen, which bowel loops are seen distended?

6- Which of the following is a marker for chronic liver disease:

- 1- Alkaline phosphatase (ALP)
- 2- Gamma Glutamyl transpeptidase (GGT)
- 3- Serum albumin
- 4- Alanine transaminase(ALT)

7- All of the followings are indications for upper GIT endoscopy except:

- 1- Dysphagia
- 2- Melena
- 3- Constipation
- 4- Removal of a coin trapped at the cardia

8- A 62 years old male with cirrhosis presented with painful eruptions in his lower right chest wall, what is the possible diagnosis:

- 1- Herpes zoster
- 2- Scratch marks
- 3- Campell De Morgan spots
- 4- Multiple spider navei

9- What is the following test done for? And give causes for unilateral occurrence of it.

10- This breast abnormality was seen in a patient with liver cell failure. What is it? And give 3 drugs that may cause it.

Kafrelshiekh University
Faculty of Medicine
Department of Hepatology, Gastroenterology and Infectious Diseases

